Homecoming was a big day for the students at Satsuma. It takes a lot of work.

Council members check cars in the parking lot daily for car stickers.

Mrs. Swindle takes on the task of S.C. sponsor and proves herself worthy.

Student Council Members give up their home room study halls to work in the supply store which is sponsored by the Student Council.

Beta Aim "To Encourage Students To

The Beta Club of Satsuma is affiliated with the National Beta Club. Its purpose is to promote the ideals of honesty, service and leadership. The Beta Club is under the guidance of Mrs. Floyd.

Among the most successful projects this year was the selling of candy for FEC. Also the club has sold banners and jewelry to the student body.

Continue Education After High School"

One of the many task of Beta Club boys is to clean the trophy case.

Being in the Beta Club is participating in the initiation programs. The theme of this program was "Shotgun Wedding."

Mrs. Floyd, the club sponsor, keeps filing cabinet in order for the Beta Club.

Beta Students enjoy some of the candy that they sold for the FEC.

Key Club Strives To Serve School,

"We Build" is the appropriate motto for the Satsuma High Key Club. This organization strives to serve its school and community and to establish leadership and high morals among its members. Remaining active through the year, the Key Club raises the flag every morning before school, sponsors assemblies, and sells refreshments at the schools sports activities.

Mr. Imms is the sponsor of the Key Club and this year the club has selected Mr. Holder as their assistant sponsor. Lynne McKenzie was chosen as Key Club Sweetheart.

Mr. Imms, sponsor of the Key Club, and Mr. Holder, co-sponsor, check over the grade points of the boys in the club.

Lynne McKenzie was chosen as Key Club Sweetheart by popular vote of the Club.

Cayman Staff

Work had long been underway on The 1969 CAYMAN when students came back to school in September. Passing by room 29, one may find the staff members counting pictures, making headlines, or drawing layouts.

The staff is made up of 19 members. Each member sells bookcovers, advertising space, and subscriptions, which add to produce a book worthy for an All-American rating.

This past July, five CAYMAN staff members participated at the clinic at Samford. As a result of the theme planning and composing, we won.

Mr. Jim Coats is the new advisor for the CAYMAN Staff. Mr. Coats attended Auburn where he worked on the annual there.

Editor Brenda Gunter shows Co-Editors Betty Langley and Rita Baker the importance of the Planning Book and the responsibilities of the Editor.

Denise and Shelia help typist Martha Barlow look for errors she might have made in typing their class sections.

Betty, Theresa, and Peggy look over other annuals for new ideas for activity section.

Mark, Sandra, and Donna return from an hour of selling ads to business firms for our annual.

Staff members work hard in identifying the pictures of the student body for their class section.

Photographer Carl Bretzman looks over pictures he has taken.

Staff members look at a new magazine in order to find new layouts for their sport sections.

Rita, Brenda, Nelson, Peggy, and Theresa won second place for the best miniature annual at Clinic.

Gazette Takes on New Professional Look

The Gator Gazette staff, composed of twelve students under supervision of Mrs. Owens, began a successful attempt at improving the paper last fall.

Sales records went up, and student participation enabled the staff to record the news better than any previous year. With a new publisher and new dimensions on the paper enabling more stories, the enthusiastic staff covered all important news events and sports games with the professional outlook of a big-time paper.

Heading the paper staff creates difficult problems for English teacher, Mrs. Carolyn Owens.

Wanda Jackson, business manager, Cheryl Wilson, assistant manager, and Phyllis Wood, editor, check businesses for ads.

Opinion polls expressed solely by the students, are taken by DeRhonda Brown, Features Editor, Betsy Anderton, and Jamie Deaton.

Cheryl Wilson and Genae Adams, typist, copyreads news stories for next publication.

The spirit of the Satsuma Gators is upheld by their many fans but mostly by the cheerleaders. These girls have the responsibility of always being friendly and courteous. They must always have a smile on their face and in their voice.

The seven talented and attractive girls are chosen by the student body on the basis of popularity and skill. The head cheerleader, Mary Smith, keeps up the rest of the groups' spirit even when their team is losing. As sponsor, Mrs. Capps advises the girls and provides their transportation.

Cheerleaders show endless energy throughout game.

Mindy, Lynn, and DeRonda decorate the goal posts for the last game.

To Arouse Spirit Among Gator Fans

Cheerleaders go through pom-pom routine along with music provided by the band.

Mrs. Capps and head cheerleader make plans for the next dance.

After the game, Satsuma's cheerleaders meet with Shaw's to discuss the outcome of the game.

The cheerleaders provide spirit, cheers, and chants for the basketball games.

Full of vitality, the cheerleaders show their ability in using pom poms.

Miss Dickens meets with the cheerleaders to discuss the necessity of maintaining good grades.

After each game, win or lose, the cheerleaders tell the team that they are "Red Hot."

Cheerleaders Lead Spirit in Junior High

Spirit among the Junior High has been one of the main ideals of the Junior High Cheerleaders. Their support can always be seen at all Junior High activities. The cheerleaders have executed their duty well for the benefit of the Junior High sports and activities.

Deborah Robinson, captain, and Rita Jones, co-captain, have helped to lead the cheerleaders in a successful year. Their sponsor, Miss Jennie Dickens, has provided transportation enabling the cheerleaders to attend all games.

During halftime, the cheerleaders switch sides to exchange cheers.

This year the band has not only increased in number, but also in its participation in other activities. Boosting spirit and showing their support has been one of the many examples set by the members of the band. During each halftime, an excellent show providing entertainment for the spectators as well as providing an exhibition of their activities was performed. Combining the ideas of Drum Major, Steve Goodrich, and Band Director, Mr. Shuler, have produced some excellent results.

The main project of the band this year has been a goal set for $11,000 to purchase uniforms. They have worked at many projects to earn money including making their first record.

The Brass Quintet consists of Mike Urban, Harvey Stinnett, Steve Wright, Renee McCrory, Woody Wilson, and Mr. Shuler.

Hoping to attain positions in A Band, B Band works diligently to improve their talents.

C band finds it necessary to learn the basic skills of music.

As a new addition to the band's curriculum, a select group was chosen by Mr. Shuler to make up the Stage Band.

Tri-Hi-Y Maintains High Standards, Morals

The Epsilon Tri-Hi-Y of Satsuma High School promotes Christian and American ideals among high school girls. Each of the thirty seven members maintains high standards and Christian morals. These girls know that they have the responsibility of setting an example for every other teenage girl.

One of the many activities the Tri-Hi-Y participated in was selling donuts for the FEC in order that exceptional children will be able to have a Christmas party. They also sponsor the annual Winter Formal. The Tri-Hi-Y is under the leadership of Miss Mary Atchison.

President Brenda Gunter helps Miss Atchison decide on a date for the next meeting.

Members think a minute before voting on a motion proposed by Brenda.

Brenda and Donna begin plans for the Winter Formal.

French Club

The French Club is made up of French students that are studying the language and the customs of the French people. At regular meetings, speeches, programs, and films are designed to promote interest in French-speaking countries, their customs, heritage, and ways of life.

One of the Club's major profits this year was the Powder Puff Football Game.

The Club is planning a trip to New Orleans in the Spring of the year.

Mrs. Swindle is the sponsor of the French Club. Here she conducts her class for a regular Wednesday meeting of the Club.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club of 1968-69 is under the guidance of Mrs. Breland. The purpose of this organization is to study the Spanish culture and way of life.

The main topic of discussion at the regular meetings is a trip to Spain. The Club's goal is to raise enough money so that the club members may go during their summer vacation.

Mrs. Breland is the new sponsor of the Spanish Club. Mrs. Breland's visit to Spain enlightened her knowledge of Spanish culture and life.

4-H Club

The 4-H Club is no longer confined to farming as in the past. It has been extended to many different areas concerning urban life also. The 4-H offers many opportunities for student growth and involvement. Each year the National 4-H Council offers valuable scholarships to the Senior members.

The 4-H boys share an interest in the activities of the club.

The 4-H girls assemble for their monthly meeting.

*Homecoming
Queen
1968-69*

Miss Genae Adams

Miss Genae Adams was elected by popular vote to head the welcoming of the alumni. The identity of the Queen was withheld until the evening of the Homecoming Parade. Although the Gators lost their game, we were compensated with a very lovely Homecoming Royalty.

Azalea Trail Maid

An example of goodwill and friendship is the radiant personality of Miss Sue Ellen Germany. Her intelligence, matched with her wit, has enabled her to accomplish many feats in her Senior year, such as Azalea Trail Maid.

As a representative of her school, Sue Ellen has shown that a student can take advantage of the opportunities offered. At the coronation, Sue Ellen was awarded a six hundred dollar scholarship to William Carey College.

Dale Purvis Captures UMOC Title

Dale Purvis won the most votes and was selected to be UMOC.

UMOC (Ugliest Man on Campus) is a contest to determine who the friendliest, cutest, and most popular boy is at Satsuma High School. He represents the ideal guy on campus.

Each student voted for his favorite UMOC candidate by contributing pennies, nickels, or dimes. Each penny counted as one vote. The boy from each grade who had the most votes or money, was selected as the final contestant for that grade. These boys then continued to solicit votes for the UMOC title. The UMOC winner--the ideal man of Satsuma--was Dale Purvis.

The UMOC grade finalists were: Jerry Jemison, Senior; Randy Thorton, Junior; Dale Purvis and Pat Nelson, Sophomores; Ben Baldwin, Freshman; Mark Bailey, 8th Grader; Steve Sherer, 7th grader.

Dale and his campaign manager, Leonard Pritchett count their money as the deadline approaches.

Valedictorian

"The main thing involved in gaining success is seeking God's will and then going from there. It takes work and the willingness to try to achieve your goals." These are some of the reasons why Beryl ranks highest in scholastic average in the senior class.

Beryl is President of the Beta Club and a member of the French Club and Inter-Club Council. She was also the D.A.R. Citizenship Girl, Girls' State Representative, and an Outstanding Senior. Because of her congenial spirit, her willingness to serve, her dependability and persistence, Beryl graduates Valedictorian of the Senior Class of 1969.

Beryl Etheridge

Beryl checks files for business before presiding over the Beta Club meetings.

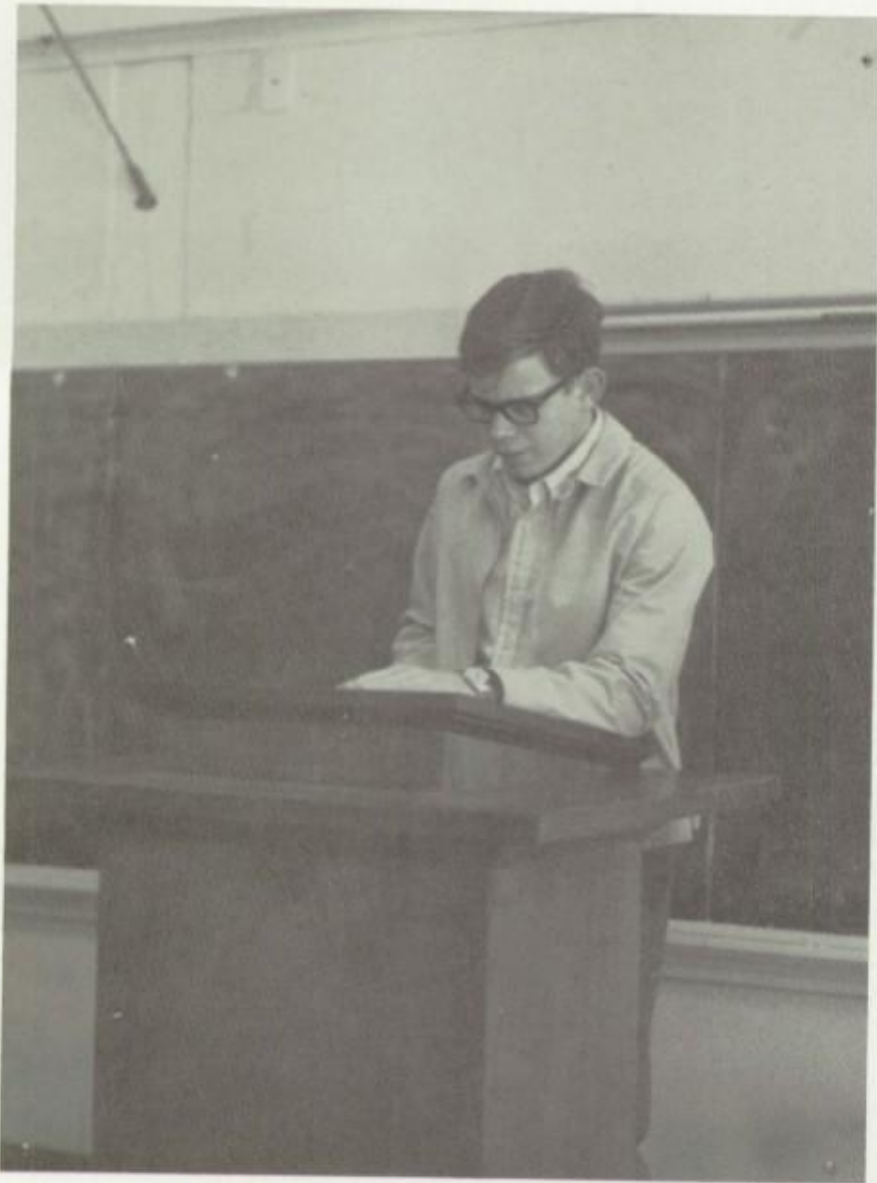

Beryl spends much time in the library doing research.

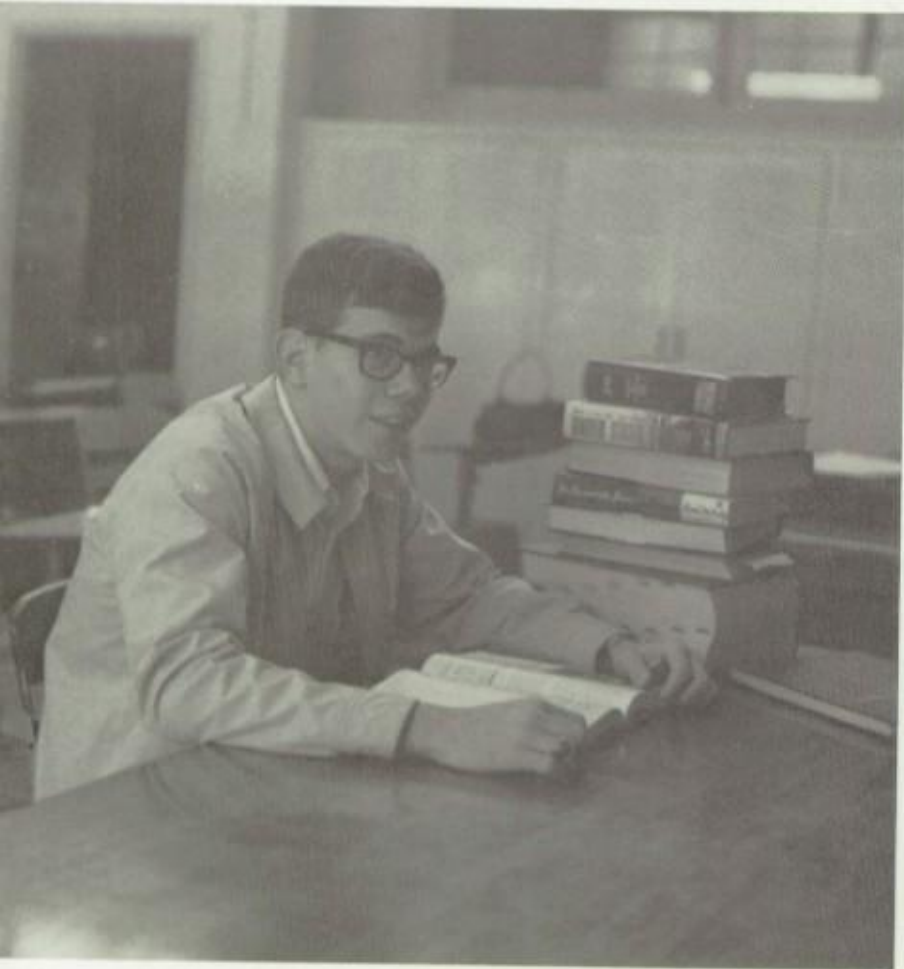

SALUTATORIAN

Being Salutatorian poses a challenge to any Senior willing to dedicate himself to learning. Larry believes, "Success in life will come to those who have the never-ending desire to learn. Success doesn't come after one obstacle has been jumped--it comes when we are ready to jump any and all obstacles."

While maintaining an outstanding scholastic average, Larry also finds time to participate in many extracurricular activities. He serves as Student Council President, member of Beta Club, Key Club, Inter-Club Council, Track Team, and Mayor of Youth Week. He also received the Citizenship Award, was elected Outstanding Senior, and was a member of the Senior Class Play.

As President of the Student Council, Larry presides over all meetings.

As an excellent student, Larry spends many hours concentrating on his studies.

Larry Moore

Mr. and Miss Senior Class

Jerry Jemison and Linda Gray were selected by the popular vote of the Senior Class to claim the title of Mr. and Miss Senior Class. Jerry and Linda have maintained a B average academically and have a worthy record of achievement and accomplishment at Satsuma High School.

Mr. and Miss Senior Class head the remaining thirteen seniors that were also selected by their class as "Outstanding Seniors". These students represent excellence in honor, citizenship, intelligence, service, and leadership.

Juniors Present First Drama of Suspense

The Girl in the Rain

The girl came, one stormy summer night, to the suburban home of wealthy Alicia Underhill and her bachelor son, David. The Underhills took her into their home for she seemed to be suffering from amnesia. After a while it dawned on some of the people that she was faking. David refused to believe it for he had fallen in love with her but he was engaged to the lovely Natalie Price. The others wondered who was the girl, what did she really want there? Could she be the Hall murderess sought by the police for the poisoning of several wealthy husbands?

Mrs. Owens points out the lines that Gary must emphasize while acting on the stage.

The Butler loses his cool and slaps the Maid.

The Doctor checks Eve's pulse after her accident.

Karen, the reporter, interviews Natalie, David, and Alicia.

Seniors Present Well Loved Favorite

Mr. Gilbreth clocks his children as they assemble in record time.

Miss Atchinson, director, fits Frank and Ernestine with some of the fashions.

Anne tries to convince her parents that silk stockings and flimsy underthings are decent in the twenties.

Cheaper by the Dozen

The father of twelve, Mr. Gilbreth, is determined to employ his eccentric time-saving schemes at home, especially since he has only six months to live. Consequently, his children find themselves skipping grades at school and learning French and German in the bathtub. Trouble develops, however, when his oldest daughter, unaware of her father's condition, decides to modernize herself and catch a beau. A happy note sounds when Mr. Gilbreth who believes courting is a waste of time, relents to let Anne date. This heartwarming comedy concludes as the tearful children watch their father depart for the last time and realize that Mother is right when she says "Right now is the happiest time in the world."

Joe Scales, cheerleader, runs into trouble in this old-fashioned household.

Larry, local dreamboat, falls for Anne in spite of a few pesty brothers.

The entire school welcomed the Junior High Homecoming court on a rainy day in October. Despite the rain, excitement reached its peak when the identity of the queen was announced. Last year's queen, Miss Peggy Stringfellow, crowned Miss Sheila Christian as the new 1968 Junior High Homecoming Queen. Representing the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, two maids from each class were chosen by popular vote.

Last year's queen, lovely Peggy Stringfellow, crowns the new queen.

The 1968 Junior High Homecoming Queen, Shelia Christian, is escorted by Ronnie Jackson.

NINTH GRADE MAIDS: Angela Jones escorted by Wayne Reed and Marilyn Welch escorted by David Whatley.

SEVENTH GRADE MAIDS: Shelia Roberts escorted by Ricky Harbin and Zoe Milam escorted by Danny Dumas.

FACULTY

Robert E. Faulk

Mr. Faulk succeeds in organizing and supporting Satsuma High. His organization leads us to greater heights as newer courses and newer techniques in education are offered each year.

Management of this school requires the whole life of our principal. His support at ball games demonstrates to all students that our principal has spirit and pride in our school. "If losing is ours, it's how we play the game that counts," is Mr. Faulk's motto.

Robert E. Faulk, head administrator for six years, relaxes after a tiring day of school.

Mr. Faulk checks accredited subjects in Seniors' files.

With tie in pocket, Mr. Faulk researches the problem of today's youth for a possible answer.

John A. Morgan

Mr. Morgan's primary function is that of a mediator between students' problems and teachers' disciplinary tactics. His understanding acts as a cushion between misunderstandings that arise.

His assistance to Mr. Faulk provides the whole school with harmonious leadership that results between the two.

Mr. Morgan checks students for hall passes during lunch.

A common reminder of Mr. Morgan is his solitary desk work.

After tardy bell rings, Mr. Morgan signs admission slips.

Mr. Morgan practices his paddling on Kenny Daniels.

Science Department

The Department of Science seeks to contribute to the students' scientific background as part of his liberal education. This department hopes to preserve a natural atmosphere in hopes of encouraging further study in this field.

English Department

With the persisting need of communications at large today, an understanding of English is essential in continuing environmental humanity. Little as we think about it, civilization would be nil without communication. It is the purpose of the English Department to stress this point.

An important factor of speech making is good English.

English classes demand full attention.

To Help You
Go to College

Merchants National Bank wants to help you go to college. That's why we have a loan to parents and a loan to students. The loan to parents is repaid by them in monthly installments over a period of 18 months for each year of college. The student loan is repaid by the student after graduation from college.

Merchants National also has College Check, a checking account especially for college students. When you open a College Check account you receive checks imprinted with your name, address, and student number. The emblem or name of your college also is imprinted on your checks and check wallet.

As We Were

Everything Has To Come to an End

The school year 1968-69, beginning on September 4, and ending on May 30 of the following calendar year, was an unprecedented success. The extent of our lives can stop here or it may very well flourish into a gratifying and enjoyable instrument through investments--all kinds of investments. Satsuma has a whole world of reliable investment choices. You have just seen a complete book of possibilities, every one as intriguing as the next.

Graduation. This awaits every determined person, and with it we lose our formal apprenticeship. We commence into the uncharted and then comes the void. How we fill it will determine our future course of life.

Our experiences at Satsuma High School will never be forgotten, but will be the basis of our lives in other places as we meet other people to face the challenge of tomorrow. Thus we have only marked life's beginning instead of the end.

To a friend that I have had a lot of fun with. Best of luck through life.
